

BACON THEATRE

Summer
2016

Well hello there!

We warmly welcome you to the Bacon Theatre this summer with a full programme of events for the whole family to enjoy - both indoors and out.

The new season is brimming with fantastic shows. Live music comes from Voodoo Room and Cotswold Clapton, plus Summer Dreaming celebrates the iconic music from the movies, musicals and pop sensations of the 50s & 60s. Event cinema screenings include astonishing performances in Hamlet and The Audience. The Bacon film season boasts the award-winning Brooklyn and multi-award nominee The Danish Girl. And all the alfresco fun of the Open-air Theatre Festival returns for another year in the secluded Tuckwell Amphitheatre, packed with exciting live theatre plus the Cinema Under the Stars.

We look forward to seeing you,

Team Bacon x

Nonumber Theatre Company
Bride Before A Fall

BACON
STUDIO STYLE

Friday 29 & Saturday 30 April 7.30 pm

£10.00 (£5.00)

LOCAL TALENT

Local troupe Nonumber present an evening of theatrical antics in two halves. The evening will open with Love Cabaret, an eclectic mix of love poems, monologues and ditties, and will conclude with the premiere production of Robert Scott's disarming new one-act comedy Bride Before A Fall. This fantastic new play journeys from the humorous to the homicidal and back again, keeping the audience laughing from the very edge of their seats.

JENNY WREN PRODUCTIONS
Robin Hood

Friday 22 July 7.30 pm

£14.00 (£12.00)

LOCAL TALENT

“Beware outlaws! They are a plague, a pestilence, and a blight.” Jenny Wren and her Merry Men take on the infamous Sheriff of Nottingham in this new adaptation of Robin Hood by Joe Hackett. As he strives to win the Golden Arrow and the hand of the valiant Maid Marian, Robin and his motley crew entertain the whole family. Action, adventure, astonishingly attractive actors and... appalling green tights.

THE PANTALOONS

Gulliver's Travels

Friday 29 July 7.30 pm

£14.00 (£12.00)

Join Lemuel Gulliver on a fantastical and hilarious voyage into the unknown. Meet the tiny people of Lilliput and the giants of Brobdingnag. Visit the floating island of Laputa and a country peopled (or horsed?) entirely by talking horses. The Pantaloons present a delightfully innovative adaptation of Jonathan Swift's classic satirical story, loved by adults and children alike. Just please don't step on any Lilliputians in the rush to get tickets.

ELEVENTH HOUR

The Picture of Dorian Gray

Saturday 30 July 7.30 pm

£14.00 (£12.00)

LOCAL TALENT

Eleventh Hour Theatre present a new adaptation of Oscar Wilde's sinister Gothic tale. In the yellow fog of 1890, the beautiful Dorian Gray slips through London society in hedonistic selfishness. Whilst his portrait becomes more and more disfigured with each unspeakable act of brutality or deviancy; his own face retains its youth and innocence. That is, until his past begins to catch up with him.

BLUNDERBUS

Dotty the Dragon

Sunday 31 July 5.00 pm

£11.00 (£9.00) Family £36.00

Dotty is a baby fire dragon. When her dad is fast asleep, she climbs through the castle window and flies down to the village in search of friendship. But not everyone loves dragons, not even cuddly, fluffy, baby fire dragons. This big-hearted tale is told with magical songs, enchanting music and exquisite puppetry. There are plenty of laughs, lots of surprises and even a life-sized fire-breathing dragon! Little people aged 3yrs + will love this funny, friendly tale.
