Sharing 50 Years of Memories Jimmy Tarbuck OBE

Known affectionately as 'Tarby', he is one of Britain's favourite comics and has a television career spanning over forty years. Still a major hit on the comedy circuit after a varied career beginning as a Redcoat at Butlin's and then as compere at The London Palladium.

In his show he will be demonstrating his quickfire wit and thoroughly entertaining the audience in a show which promises comedy for grown-ups rather than adult comedy.

Tarby will be using photos and videos to take audiences on a trip down memory lane with a wealth of hugely funny stories and anecdotes ranging from being at school and in the same class as John Lennon to playing golf with Bing Crosby.

Tickets £23.00

Thursday 26th September 7.00pm

National Theatre Live [12A] One Man, Two Guvnors

Fired from his skiffle band, Francis Henshall becomes minder to Roscoe Crabbe, a small time East End hood, now in Brighton to collect £6,000 from his fiancée's dad. But Roscoe is really his sister Rachel posing as her own dead brother, who's been killed by her boyfriend Stanley Stubbers.

Holed up at The Cricketers' Arms, the permanently ravenous Francis, spots the chance of an extra meal ticket and takes a second job with one Stanley Stubbers, who is hiding from the police and waiting to be re-united with Rachel. To prevent discovery, Francis must keep his two guvnors apart. Simple.

A Special Reunion Concert Johnny Coppin

A special concert to celebrate the release of a new compilation album 30 Songs. Playing material from over ten albums, Johnny, together with Paul Burgess and Dik Cadbury, will reunite with previous band members: Mick Candler on drums, John Broomhall on keyboards, and Gareth Sampson on bass.

The songs span several decades and will include many of his favourite songs from the earlier albums No Going Back, Get Lucky, Forest & Vale, and Force of The River, through to the more recent Winding Stair, and Borderland. Playing guitar and piano, his music is essentially British, and always melodic and evocative. This is a rare reunion indeed.
